In ancient times the different cultures had gods for everything one can think of. The Apostle Paul in his journey around Greece notices a altar to a god with no name. Paul uses this to proclaim the living God to the assembled crowds.

Acts 17:22-25 KJV Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. (23) For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. (24) God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; (25) Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he gives to all life, and breath, and all things;

God also has made proclamations. Here are two saying that there are no other gods in existence
